LEATHER SINCE 1933

INTRODUCING
PAPILLON

Designed on full hides by a boutique tannery in Spain, this brilliantly textured scotch-grain leather features a beautiful tipping effect that highlights the peaks of the grain. Marked by its classically chic and timeless aesthetic, Papillon is an ideal option for designers searching for a more modern and contemporary upholstery leather.

LEATHER SINCE 1933

Founded in 1933 in Lynchburg, Va., Moore & Giles is dedicated to designing and developing the world's most innovative and luxurious natural leathers.

We take pride in the long-term relationships we have cultivated with fine artisan tanneries worldwide. Not only is it incredibly inspiring, it allows us to design and deliver an unparalleled array of natural leathers with the highest level of quality, craftsmanship and originality.

From the lobbies and guestrooms of the top hotels, to the interiors of celebrated restaurants, to the spaces within artfully designed homes, our leathers grace some of the most exciting and exclusive design projects around the world.

Our spring advertising campaign featuring our Papillon leather pays tribute to our early beginnings and history in the shoe business.
